

| 4. THE ATONEMENT(Fellowship restored between God and man)             |                                                                             |                                                                         |                                                                             |                                                                        |                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                           | LAW                                                                         | WRITINGS                                                                | PROPHETS                                                                    | GOSPELS/ACTS                                                           | EPISTLES                                                      |
| ENMITYThe need for the Atonement                               | ESTABLISHEDby the Fall(Racially)Genesis 3: 9, 10, 24 | ENDANGERSthe soul(Eternally)Psalm 1: 6           | ESTRANGEDby sin(Individually)Isaiah 59: 2            | EXEMPLIFIEDin ChristJohn 15: 18-25                  | ENTIRELYopposed to GodColossians 1: 21     |
| Hebrews 9: 22 – ‘Without shedding of blood there is no remission’. |                                                                             |                                                                         |                                                                             |                                                                        |                                                               |
| ESSENTIAL BASISThe way of the Atonement                        | ENTAILSa covenantExodus 24: 7-8Leviticus 17: 11      | EXECUTEDby a MediatorJob 9: 331 Chronicles 6: 49 | EXPERIENCEDPersonallyIsaiah 55: 6, 7(Psalm 51: 1-19) | EVERYsin is includedJohn 1: 29                      | EXCHANGEof places1 Peter 3: 18             |
| SIN COVERED -----&gt;                                              |                                                                             |                                                                         |                                                                             | &lt;----- SIN REMOVED                                           |                                                               |
| EFFECT ACHIEVEDThe result of the Atonement                     | EXEMPTIONfrom judgementExodus 12:13                      | ENJOYMENTof worship2 Chronicles 29: 36               | ENDof hostilityIsaiah 53: 5                              | ETERNAL LIFEreceived = renewed fellowshipJohn 17: 3 | ENTRANCEto God’s PresenceHebrews 10: 19-20 |
| Hebrews 10: 19-22 – ‘By the blood of Jesus.....let us draw near’.  |                                                                             |                                                                         |                                                                             |                                                                        |                                                               |